Education and Ethno-Political Stability
In the Basque Country, Chile and South Tyrol

Special Themed Seminar

29 Jan 2014

at the London School of Economics
Room 2.12, 20 Kingsway.
18:15-19:45. No ticket required.

*ASEN is an independent research organisation associated with but not part of the formal structure of the LSE.

‘Identity politics in the educational system in South Tyrol (I):
Balancing between minority and protection and the need to manage diversity’
- Verena Wisthaler (Institute for Minority Rights, Bolzano, and University of Leicester)

‘Advancing Peace Culture in the Basque Autonomous Community:
The Basque Education Plan for Peace and Human Rights, 2008-2011’
- Stuart Durkin (University of Aberdeen)

‘Mapuche Demands During Educational Reform,
the Penguin Revolution and the Chilean Winter of Discontent’
- Andrew Webb and Sarah Radcliffe (University of Cambridge)